

Biography of Alon Linetzki,

Mr. Alon Linetzki is the founder and managing director of Best-Testing (www.best-testing.com). An innovative testing services company that brings effective coaching and mentoring, training and consulting to many organizations.

Mr. Linetzki has 16 years experience in testing and over 26 years in IT, and is the author of multiple testing courses, including: TPI in a day, Risk Based Testing, Personal Communication and presentation Skills, Pragmatic Advanced Testing, Introduction to Test Automation and more.

Part of Mr. Linetzki's experience includes: Establishing the IBM Testing Services group in Israel, in charge of all the testing and QA activities; serving as the R&D testing manager of Amdocs, in charge of testing all Amdocs offerings products worldwide; Leading a large development project involving hundreds of people in Canada for CMM level 3; and management member at SELA, in charge of business development and serving as the principal consultant of testing training and consulting services.

Mr. Linetzki is a popular speaker in international testing conferences since 1995, co-founder of the Israeli Testing Certification Board (www.itcb.org.il), and the founder and chair of SIGiST Israel (www.sigist.org.il). He is also a member of the marketing WG of ISTQB.

Mr. Linetzki has published articles in magazines such as the TestingExperience, in the Quality Matters, and in some local Israeli IT magazines.

Mr. Linetzki has successfully obtained: MBA (cum laude), M.Sc., LQA (lead quality auditor), CSA (certified system analyst), ISTQB-FL, ISTQB-AL-TA&TM, CSM (certified scrum master).